The ratios reported correspond to the Overall Capital Requirement (OCR) and the Overall Leverage Ratio Requirement (OLRR). The OCR includes the countercyclical capital buffer requirements updated as of March 2023. The OLRR includes, in addition to the 3% minimum, the G-SIB Leverage Ratio buffer, for UniCredit equal to 0.5%.

What are the key risks that are specific to the Issuer?

Potential investors should be aware that in the case of the occurrence of one of the below mentioned risk factors the Securities may decline in value and that they may sustain a total loss of their investment.

The following risks are key risks specific to the Issuer:

Risks associated with the impact of current macroeconomic uncertainties and the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic outbreak and recent geopolitical tensions with Russia

The financial markets and the macroeconomic and political environment of the countries in which UniCredit operates have been impacted by non-recurrent phenomena e.g.: i) Russia-Ukraine conflict and ii) the viral pneumonia known as "Coronavirus" (COVID-19). Both had and could continue to have a negative impact on the performance of the Group. As a matter of fact, the macroeconomic uncertainty has particularly increased due to the heightened geopolitical tension between Russian Federation and Ukraine. The Russia-Ukraine crisis has caused a sharp rise in commodities prices and inflationary pressure, further global supply-chain disruption, a tightening of financial conditions, heightened uncertainty, and a sharp drop in consumer confidence. As inflation builds up due to the increase in energy price and the supply disruptions, ECB is changing its monetary stance (Deposit Facility rate: -50 bps in June 2022, 0 bps in July, 75 bps in September, 150 bps in October, 200 bps in December, 250 bps in February 2023, 300 bps in March, 325 bps in May) and market is repricing interest rate expectations. The outlook is still surrounded by risks, further tensions on commodity prices cannot be excluded and an upsurge in the ongoing Russia-Ukraine conflict cannot be ignored. Therefore, the expectations regarding the performance of the global economy remains still uncertain in both the short and medium term. The current environment, characterized by highly uncertain elements as above mentioned could generate a worsening of the loan portfolio quality, followed by an increase of the non-performing loans and the necessity to increase the provisions to be charged to the income statement. On 9 December 2021 UniCredit presented to the financial community its new Strategic Plan, which included a set of strategic and financial objectives that considered the underlying scenario and resulted from the assessment performed at that time.

The macro assumptions underlying the Strategic Plan excluded unexpected materially adverse developments such as the Russia-Ukraine conflict and worsening of the COVID-19 pandemic, situations that UniCredit is monitoring closely (From Strategic Plan presentation: Macro assumptions in the Strategic Plan consider the recent and still existing impacts of COVID-19 with a gradual normalization over the upcoming years. The scenario does not assume that the current COVID-19 situation will develop in a particularly negative way in the upcoming years).

Risks connected with the Strategic Plan 2022 – 2024

On 9 December 2021, UniCredit presented to the financial community in Milan the 2022-2024 Strategic Plan called "UniCredit Unlocked" (the Strategic Plan or Plan) which contains a number of strategic, capital and financial objectives (the Strategic Objectives). The Strategic Plan focuses on UniCredit's geographic areas in which the Bank currently operates, with financial performance driven by three interconnected levers: cost efficiency, optimal capital allocation and net revenue growth. "UniCredit Unlocked" delivers strategic imperatives and financial ambitions based on six pillars. Such strategic imperatives and financial ambitions regard: (i) the growth in its regions and the development of its client franchise, changing its business model and how its people operate; (ii) the delivery of economies of scale from its footprint of banks, transforming the technology, leveraging Digital & Data and embedding sustainability in all that UniCredit does; (iii) driving financial performance via three interconnected levers. The macro assumptions underlying the Strategic Plan disclosed in December 2021 excluded unexpected materially adverse developments such as the Russia-Ukraine conflict and worsening of the COVID-19 pandemic, situations that UniCredit is monitoring closely (From Strategic Plan presentation: Macro assumptions in the Strategic Plan consider the recent and still existing impacts of COVID-19 with a gradual normalization over the upcoming years. The scenario does not assume that the current COVID-19 situation will develop in a particularly negative way in the upcoming years). The Plan is based on six pillars: (i) optimise, through the improvement of operational and capital efficiency; (ii) invest, with targeted growth initiatives, including ESG; (iii) grow net revenues; (iv) increase return; (v) strengthen solidity thanks to revised CET1 ratio target and decrease of Gross NPE ratio; and (vi) distribute consistently with organic capital generation. UniCredit's ability to meet the strategic objectives and all forward-looking statements relies on a number of assumptions, expectations, projections and provisional data concerning future events and is hence subject to a number of uncertainties and additional factors, many of which are outside the control of UniCredit. For all these reasons, investors are cautioned against making their investment decisions based exclusively on the forecast data included in the strategic objectives. Any failure to implement the strategic objective or meet the strategic objectives may have a material adverse effect on UniCredit's business, financial condition or results of operations.

Credit risk and risk of credit quality deterioration

The activity, financial and capital strength and profitability of the UniCredit Group depend, among other things, on the creditworthiness of its customers. In carrying out its credit activities, the Group is exposed to the risk that an unexpected change in the creditworthiness of a counterparty may generate a corresponding change in the value of the associated credit exposure and give rise to the partial or total write-down thereof. The current environment continues to be characterised by highly uncertain elements, potentially followed by an increase of the non-performing loans and the necessity to increase the provisions to be charged to the income statement.

UniCredit's Loan Loss Provisions (LLPs) decreased by 82.5 per cent Q/Q and 92.8 per cent Y/Y to Euro 93 million in 1Q23. Therefore, the cost of risk decreased by 38 bps Q/Q and 105 bps Y/Y to 8 bps in 1Q23. As at 31 March 2023, Group gross NPE ratio was equal to 2.7 per cent, stable compared to 31 December 2022 in which the gross NPE ratio was equal to 2.7 per cent. As at 31 March 2023 Group Net NPE ratio stable compared to 31 December 2022 and is equal to 1.4 per cent.

The Group has adopted procedures, rules and principles aimed at monitoring and managing credit risk at both individual counterparty and portfolio level. However, there is the risk that, despite these credit risk monitoring and management activities, the Group's credit exposure may exceed predetermined risk's levels pursuant to the procedures, rules and principles it has adopted.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk refers to the possibility that the UniCredit Group may find itself unable to meet its current and future, anticipated and unforeseen cash payment and delivery obligations without impairing its day-to-day operations or financial position. The activity of the UniCredit Group is subject in particular to funding liquidity risk, market liquidity risk, mismatch risk and contingency risk. The most relevant risks that the Group may face are: i) an exceptionally high usage of the committed and uncommitted lines granted to corporate customers; ii) an unusual withdrawal of sight deposits by UniCredit's retail and corporate customers; iii) the decline in the market value of the securities in which UniCredit invests its liquidity buffer; iv) the capacity to roll over the expiring wholesale funding and the potential cash or collateral outflows the Group may suffer in case of rating downgrades of both the banks or the sovereign debt in the geographies in which it operates. In addition to this, some risks may arise from the limitations applied to the cross-border lending among banks. Due to the financial market crisis, followed also by the reduced liquidity available to operators in the sector, the ECB has implemented important interventions in monetary policy, such as the "Targeted Longer-Term Refinancing Operation" (TLTRO) introduced in 2014 and the TLTRO II introduced in 2016.

It is not possible to predict the extension of the duration and the amounts with which these liquidity support operations can be repeated in the future, with the result that it is not possible to exclude a reduction or even the cancellation of this support. This would result in the need for banks to seek alternative sources of borrowing, without ruling out the difficulties of obtaining such alternative funding as well as the risk that the related costs could be higher. Such a situation could therefore adversely affect UniCredit's business, operating results and the economic and financial position of UniCredit and/or the Group.

The main indicators used by the UniCredit Group to assess its liquidity profile are (i) the Liquidity Coverage Ratio (LCR), which represents an indicator of short-term liquidity subject to a minimum regulatory requirement of 100 per cent from 2018 and which was equal to 161 per cent in December 2022, whereas at 31 December 2021 was equal to 182 per cent (calculated as the average of the 12 latest end of month ratios), and (ii) the Net Stable Funding Ratio (NSFR), which represents the indicator of structural liquidity and which in December 2022 was above the internal limit set at 102 per cent, as at 31 December 2021, within the risk appetite framework.

Basel III and Bank Capital Adequacy

The Issuer shall comply with the revised global regulatory standards (Basel III) on bank capital adequacy and liquidity, which impose requirements for, inter alia, higher and better-quality capital, better risk coverage, measures to promote the build-up of capital that can be drawn down in periods of stress and the introduction of a leverage ratio as a backstop to the risk-based requirement as well as two global liquidity standards. In terms of banking prudential regulations, the Issuer is also subject to the Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive 2014/59/EU of 15 May 2014 (BRRD), implemented in Italy with the Legislative Decree. 180 and 181 of 16 November 2015 as amended by Directive (EU) 2019/879, the "BRRD II" (implemented in Italy by the Legislative Decree No. 193 of November 8, 2021), as well as the relevant technical standards and guidelines from EU regulatory bodies (i.e. the European Banking Authority (EBA)), which, inter alia, provide for recovery and resolution mechanisms and Minimum Requirement for Own Funds and Eligible Liabilities (MREL) for credit institutions.

Should UniCredit not be able to meet the capital/MREL requirements imposed by the applicable laws and regulations, it may be required to maintain higher levels of capital/eligible liabilities which could potentially impact its credit ratings, and funding conditions and which could limit UniCredit's growth opportunities.

S Compliance Category 2; TEFRA not applicable.
Where will the Notes be traded?
No application for the Notes to be admitted to trading on a regulated or equivalent market is expected to be made. Application is expected to be made by the Issuer (or on its behalf) for the Notes to be admitted to trading on EuroTLX® organised and managed by Borsa Italiana S.p.A. ("EuroTLX®"). UniCredit Bank AG, acting through its Milan Branch, will act as Liquidity Provider on EuroTLX®.
What are the key risks that are specific to the Notes?
There are certain risks associated with investing in the Notes. These risks include: Limited Events of Default and remedies The circumstances upon which the Noteholders may declare the Notes to be immediately due and payable are limited: in particular, if the Issuer is subject to Liquidazione Coatta Amministrativa. In this case, the right of acceleration of principal can be restricted and the sole remedy available to Noteholders for recovery of amounts owing in respect of any of the Notes will be the institution of proceedings to enforce such payment; Restricted early redemption and purchase Any early redemption or purchase of Notes is subject to compliance by the Issuer with any conditions to such redemption or repurchase prescribed by the then applicable relevant regulations, including any requirements applicable to such redemption or repurchase, the prior approval of the Relevant Resolution Authority or the decision of the Issuer of not exercising the option to redeem the Notes. In addition, the Issuer has the right to redeem all Notes upon the occurrence of a MREL or TLAC Disqualification Event, and there can be no assurance that Noteholders will be able to reinvest the amounts received upon redemption at a rate that will provide the same rate of return as their investment in the Notes; Modification without Noteholders' consent In case of MREL or TLAC Disqualification Event or to enforce the provisions related to the statutory bail-in power, the Issuer may vary the terms of the Notes and in such case no assurance can be given as to whether any of these changes will negatively affect any particular Noteholder; Application of the general bail-in tool The Notes may be subject to write-down or conversion into equity capital instruments on any application of the general bail-in tool, which may result in the relevant holders losing some or all of their investment;

Dematerialised Notes

In no circumstances would physical documents of title be issued in respect of the Notes issued in dematerialised form. While the Notes are represented by book entries, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through Monte Titoli and the authorised financial intermediaries holding accounts on behalf of their customers with Monte Titoli. As the Notes are held in dematerialised form with Monte Titoli, investors will have to rely on the procedures of Monte Titoli and the financial intermediaries authorised to hold accounts therewith, for transfer, payment and communication to the Issuer;

Waiver of set-off

As a result of the waiver of set-off each Noteholder waives to any set-off remedy which it might otherwise have, under the laws of any jurisdiction or otherwise, in respect of such Note;

Changes in Italian laws or administrative practice

Changes in Italian laws or administrative practice could materially adversely impact the value of any Notes affected by it;

Risks related to the market generally

Credit ratings assigned to the Issuer may not reflect all the risks associated with an investment in those Notes. The Issue Price of the Notes includes implicit fees that may not be taken into account for the purposes of determining the price of the Notes in the secondary market and could result in a difference between the Issue Price, the theoretical value of the Notes and/or the actual bid/offer price quoted by any intermediary in the secondary market. Any such difference may have an adverse effect on the value of the Notes, particularly immediately following the offer and the issue date relating to such Notes, where any such fees may be deducted from the price at which such Notes can be sold by the initial investor in the secondary market. In addition, an active secondary market in respect of the Notes may never be established or may be illiquid and this would adversely affect the value at which an investor could sell his Notes. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. Furthermore, if an investor holds Notes which are not denominated in the investor's home currency, it will be exposed to movements in exchange rates adversely affecting the value of its holding. In addition, the imposition of exchange controls in relation to any Notes could result in an investor not receiving payments on those Notes. Finally, the repayment of the nominal amount of the Notes at maturity does not protect investors from the risk of inflation. Consequently, the real return of the Notes, which is the adjusted return taking into account the inflation rate measured during the life of the Notes themselves, could be negative.

Section D – Key Information on the Offer of the Notes to the PublicAre the Notes being offered to the public as part of a Non-Exempt Offer?

This issue of Notes is being offered in a Public Offer in Italy.

Consent: Subject to the conditions set out below, the Issuer consents to the use of the Base Prospectus in connection with a Non-exempt Offer of Notes by the Distributor and any financial intermediary which is authorised to make such offers under applicable legislation implementing the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (Directive 2014/65/EU) and publishes on its website the following statement (with the information in square brackets being completed with the relevant information):

"We, [insert legal name of financial intermediary], refer to the offer of [insert title of relevant Notes] (the Notes) described in the Final Terms dated [insert date] (the Final Terms) published by UniCredit S.p.A. (the Issuer). In consideration of the Issuer offering to grant its consent to our use of the Base Prospectus (as defined in the Final Terms) in connection with the offer of the Notes in [specify relevant State(s)] during the Offer Period and subject to the other conditions to such consent, each as specified in the Base Prospectus, we hereby accept the offer by the Issuer in accordance with the Authorised Offeror Terms (as specified in the Base Prospectus), and confirm that we are using the Base Prospectus accordingly."

Offer period: The Issuer's consent referred to above is given for Non-exempt Offers of Notes during the offer period for the issue to be specified below (the Offer Period).

Conditions to consent: The conditions to the Issuer's consent (in addition to the conditions referred to above) are that such consent: (a) is only valid during the Offer Period; and (b) only extends to the use of the Base Prospectus to make Non-exempt Offers of the relevant Tranche of Notes in Italy. The Issuer consents to the use of the Base Prospectus by all financial intermediaries (so-called general consent). The Issuer's consent to the use of the Base Prospectus is subject to the condition that (i) each financial intermediary complies with the applicable selling restrictions and the terms and conditions of the offer and (ii) the consent to the use of the Base Prospectus has not been revoked. Moreover, the Issuer's consent to the use of the Base Prospectus is subject to the condition that the financial intermediary using the Base Prospectus commits itself towards its customers to a responsible distribution of the Notes. This commitment is made by the publication of the financial intermediary on its website stating that the prospectus is used with the consent of the Issuer and subject to the conditions set forth with the consent. Besides, the consent is not subject to any other conditions.

AN INVESTOR INTENDING TO PURCHASE OR PURCHASING ANY NOTES IN A NON-EXEMPT OFFER FROM AN AUTHORISED OFFEROR WILL DO SO, AND OFFERS AND SALES OF SUCH NOTES TO AN INVESTOR BY SUCH AUTHORISED OFFEROR WILL BE MADE, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE OFFER IN PLACE BETWEEN SUCH AUTHORISED OFFEROR AND SUCH INVESTOR INCLUDING ARRANGEMENTS IN RELATION TO PRICE, ALLOCATIONS, EXPENSES AND SETTLEMENT. Under which conditions and timetable can I invest in this securities?

The Notes will be offered at the Issue Price (the "Offer Price") to eligible counterparties, professional clients and retail clients by way of a public offering through financial intermediaries. The Notes will be offered during the Offer Period: from 15 May 2023 until 26 May 2023 (at the offices of the Distributor) and from 15 May 2023 to 19 May 2023 (through "door-to-door selling" or "fuori sede"), unless closed in advance and, in such latter case, with previous notice to the investors, to be published on the Issuer's website and through the Distributor.

The public offer may be terminated or withdrawn by the Issuer at any time without giving any reason and with previous notice to the investors, to be published on the Issuer's website and through the Distributor.

The effectiveness of the offer is subject to the adoption of the admission provision for trading by EuroTLX® prior to the Issue Date. The Issuer undertakes to request the admission to trading on EuroTLX® in time for the adoption of the admission provision by the Issue Date.

Investors may apply for the subscription of the Notes by subscribing (also by appropriate attorneys) the relevant acceptance form (the “Acceptance Form”) duly filled in. The application can be submitted during normal Italian banking hours to the Distributor at its offices (filiali) from (and including) 15 May 2023 at 9:00 CET to (and including) 26 May 2023 at 16:30 CET, unless closed in advance and, in such latter case, with previous notice to the investors, to be published on the Issuer’s website and through the Distributor. Any application shall be made in Italy to the Distributor. The Notes can also be placed by the Distributor through “door to door selling” or “fuori sede” (through financial promoters or “consulenti finanziari abilitati all’offerta fuori sede” pursuant to articles 30 and 31 of the Financial Services Act) and, in this case, subscription orders will be accepted starting from (and including) 15 May 2023 to (and including) 19 May 2023 – unless closed in advance and, in such latter case, with previous notice to the investors, to be published on the Issuer’s website and through the Distributor.

The subscription orders will be satisfied within the limits of the maximum number of Notes on offer.

Subscription orders are irrevocable, except for the applicable provisions with respect to the “door to door selling”. Therefore, the effects of the subscription will be suspended for seven days with reference to those “door to door selling” from the date of subscription by the relevant investors. Within such terms, the relevant investor can withdraw by means of a notice in written form, including through registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt (lettera raccomandata A/R) anticipated via fax on the same day of the posting of the registered letter, to the Distributor, without any liability, expenses or other fees, and in any case as further described in the relevant Acceptance Form.

The minimum amount of the application is EUR 1,000. The smallest transferable unit is 1 Note. The smallest tradable unit is 1 Note.

Each investor will be notified by the Distributor of the settlement arrangement in respect of the Notes at the time of such investor’s application and payment for the Notes allotted shall be made by the investor to the Distributor, in accordance with arrangements existing between the Distributor and its customers relating to the subscription of securities generally, without fees or any other expenses or commissions being charged to the applicant by the Issuer, the Distributors or the Dealer.

The Notes will be issued on the Issue Date against payment by the Distributor, through the Dealer in its capacity as Responsabile del Collocamento, to the Issuer of the net subscription monies. The settlement and the delivery of the Notes as between the Issuer and the Distributor will be executed through Dealer in its capacity as Responsabile del Collocamento.

The Issuer estimates that the Notes will be delivered to the subscribers’ respective book-entry securities account on or around the Issue Date.

The Issuer will communicate the results of the Offer, within 5 business days from the end of the Offer Period, by means of a notice to be published on the Issuer’s website. Prospective Noteholders will be notified directly by the Distributor of the success of their application and amount allotted. Subscription applications will be accepted until the Aggregate Nominal Amount is reached during the Offer Period. In the event that the total amount of Notes requested to be subscribed for exceeds the Aggregate Nominal Amount, the Issuer will close early the Offer Period with previous notice to the investors, to be published on the Issuer’s website and through the Distributor.

The Distributor is UniCredit S.p.A. (Piazza Gae Aulenti, 3 Tower A, 20154 Milan, Italy).

The Dealer and Responsabile del Collocamento is UniCredit Bank AG, acting through its Milan Branch (Piazza Gae Aulenti 4, Tower C, 20154 Milan, Italy).

Total commission: 2.40 per cent. of the Aggregate Nominal Amount. A Distribution Fee of 2.00% upfront is included in the Issue Price and represents the remuneration of the Distributor. A Mandate Fee of 0.40% upfront is included in the Issue Price and represents the remuneration of UniCredit Bank AG, acting through its Milan Branch.

Why is this prospectus being produced?

Reasons for the offer and use of proceeds: for its general corporate purposes, which include making a profit.

Indication of most material conflicts of interest pertaining to the offer or the admission to trading: Save for the fees payable to the Dealer, acting also as arranger and Responsabile del Collocamento and the Distributor and, save for the fact that the Dealer and the Distributor are part of the Issuer’s Group, so far as the Issuer is aware, no person involved in the issue of the Notes has an interest material to the offer. Furthermore, UniCredit Bank AG, acting through its Milan Branch, is the Calculation Agent of the Notes and, with regard to trading of the Notes, will act as Liquidity Provider on EuroTLX®. The Dealer, the Distributor and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform other services for, the Issuer and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business.
